CONTENTS

Volume 21 of the Survey of Current Business

SPECIAL ARTICLES

	No.	Page
The Electric Power Industry and the Defense Program	1	11
An Economic Review of 1940	2	3
Capital Expenditures for Manufacturing Plant and Equipment, 1915–40	3	9
Recent Price Developments	4	8
The American Shipping Situation	4	13
The Relation Between Corporate Bigness and Control Over the Output of Individual Products	5	10
National Income Exceeds 76 Billion Dollars in 1940	6	11
The Railway Freight Car Problem	7	10
Income Payments by States	8	11
Consumer Credit and Price Control	9	9
The Defense Program and Labor Requirements	9	12
The Outlook for Consumption	9	17
War Influences Dominate Foreign Trade	10	11
Monthly Estimates of Sales of All Retail Stores, 1935–41	10	18
The New Defense Facilities	11	10
Public and Private Debt in the United States, 1929–40	11	18
Factors Influencing the General Movement of Prices in Great Britain	12	11
Capital Expenditures in Selected Manufacturing Industries	12	19

TABLES OF NEW OR REVISED STATISTICAL SERIES

	No.	Page
Automobile receivables outstanding, 1936–41	11	26
Automobiles, index of dollar sales of new passenger cars, 1928–41	8	20
Butter and cheese, production and consumption, 1939 and 1940	9	26
Construction:
Estimated number of dwelling units provided in all urban areas, 1939	5	17
Building costs for standard 6-room frame house, index, 1936–41	10	26
Cost of living:
Cost of living index and food component (N. I. C. B. index), 1935–39	1	18
Cost of living index (U. S. Department of Labor index), 1913–41	5	18
Department store sales, Minneapolis Federal Reserve District, index, 1919–39	5	18
Employment:
Estimates of nonagricultural employment, total civil nonagricultural employment, by industrial groups, and military and naval forces, 1929–40	3	17, 18
Nonagricultural employment, revised estimates of total civil nonagricultural employment, employees in nonagricultural establishments and manufacturing	8	20
Factory employment and pay rolls, total, durable and nondurable goods, 1937–39	3	18
Exports by grand divisions and countries, by economic classes, and by commodities, 1939	4	17
Federal expenditures, 1932–41	11	23
Freight-car loadings, indexes, 1919–40	8	21, 22
Glassware, machine-made:
Tumblers, production, shipments, and stocks, 1939–40	1	17
Table, kitchen, and household ware, shipments, 1939–40	1	17
Gum rosin, wholesale price, 1919–40	1	17
Imports by grand divisions and countries, by economic classes, and by commodities, 1939	4
Income payments, 1929–40	7	16–
Industrial production, revisions in data for combined index, manufactures, durable goods, and certain industries and industry groups	9	24, 25
Installment loans:
Personal finance companies, loans, repayments, and outstandings, 1929–40	9	26
Credit unions, loans, repayments, and outstandings, 1936–41	10	26
Lard, production in Federally inspected plants, 1937–40	1	18
Local transit lines, passengers carried, 1938–40	3	18
Lumber:
Index of wholesale price of lumber, 1935–40	1	18
Douglas fir, wholesale prices, 1922–40	5	17
Lumber production, shipments, and stocks, total and softwoods, 1939	5	17
Nonfarm real estate foreclosures, index, 1926–41	10	26
Petroleum and products:
Crude petroleum and motor fuel, revisions for 1939	1	17
Gasoline, wholesale price, tank wagon, New York, 1935–40	1	18
Gasoline, retail service-station price, 50 cities, 1920–40	3	16
Purchasing power of the dollar in terms of living costs and retail food, 1935–40	1	18
Rayon filament yarn, wholesale price, viscose, 150 denier, first quality, 1913–41	11	22
Retail stores, total dollar sales and indexes of sales of all retail, durable goods and nondurable goods stores, and by kinds of business groups, 1935–41	10	24
Rigid steel conduit and fittings, shipments, 1937–41	11	26
Steel production, ingots and steel for castings, and percent of capacity, 1917–40	3	16
Weekly business statistics, selected series	11	24–26